Dear Walter:

Many thanks for your letter of May 28 with regard to our Chinese friend. Unfortunately your letter was late in reaching me as I have moved from the address you now have. I suggest you send all mail to me to the Post Office Box shown above and also kindly tell Ham and others at the Council that this will be my Washington address from now on.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles

Dear Allen:

At last I have had an opportunity to have a conversation with our Far Eastern friend. He told me categorically and with great emphasis that there was no chance whatever at this time of his accepting any official assignment. Also he said that he was not expecting to make any trip to the Far East since his wife does not know any English and would be greatly handicapped if left here without him. You may already have this information, but I send it along in any case.

With kindest regards and hoping to see you soon, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Walter H. Mallory
